SAYS SCRIBE

DID NOT GET

Lothrop Withington Denies He

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 1.— Lothrop Withington, former Harvard football captain and a member of the Graduate Advisory Committee on that sport, takes exception to the attitude of

The Harvard Alumni Bulletin and the university authorities toward his reported speech with regard to Harvard-Princeton football rela-tions. At the Princeton dinner preceding the game, Withington was quoted as intimating the possibility of a break in football re-

He now claims that his remarks were garbled in newspaper reports, and that Princeton men were satis-fied with his address as made at their dinner the night before the game with Harvard. He quotes from two letters he received to show that this is a fact.

In a letter to the editor of the Harvard Alumni Bulletin. Withing ton emphatically denies that he intimated that Harvard might give up football games with Princeton; that he represented Harvard at any dinner; that a Western college would be given a place on Harvard's schedule so that Western graduates who had contributed to the endowment fund might have something in return for their contributions; that President Lowell signed the triangu-lar agreement "only because he happened to be in good humor at the moment;" that Princeton men should hold President Hibben responsible if the Harvard-Princeton men should bring pressure to bear upon Presi-dent Hibben to modify or overthrow the new athletic agreement.

Withington explained that he had een invited to attend the snaker of the Princeton New England Alumn Association, held the night before the Harvard - Princeton game, and that when he requested to know what they wanted him to talk about he was given the following subjects (1) Whether Harvard thinks Prince ton plays dirty football; (2) Why doesn't Harvard give an "H" to mer who play in the Princeton game (3) Is Harvard going to continue to these subjects "lest there should misconstruction" of his re

He further explained that, had he

However, he added, that he did break between Harvard and Prince-

Harvard men and many, many Princeton men present who heard my remarks and understood them in the spirit they were intended," wrote Withington. "It is only for those others who did not hear them delivered and consequently could not un-derstand the newspaper reports that Withington enclosed two letters written to him by the President of the Princeton New England Alumni Association and the Chair man of the Princeton Football Committee. The letter from the former fol-

I am interested to write you to express my regret, which I am sure is shared in by all am sure is shared in by all Princeton men who heard your talk on Friday night, that the newspapers could have given an interpretation to your remarks in a way that I know they were not said. We all were very interested in your talk and appreciate your courtesy in coming to our suppler years maker were myten indeed.

our smoker very much indeed It is certainly an unfortunate thing and had I thought that any such misinterpretation was pos-sible I certainly would have used my best influence to have had

QUOTES TWO LETTERS.

reporters were present, not have talked on any

GIVES HIS ALIBI.

Princeton?

I repeat them.

Dear Lothron:

lations.

Break With Princeton.

Intimated Harvard Would

SPEECH FACT

Runyon: LAFAYETTE IS FAVORED TO DEFEAT GEORGETOWN ELEV

Babe and St. Anthony. The Life of a Flea. Living One Hundred Years. How It Can Be Done. The Age of Methuselah.

BABE RUTH has fled to his farm at Sudbury, up in Massachusetts, to escape the temptations of the city.

St. Anthony, of Egypt, was a hot sport, one of the boys, in Alexandria before his conversion. He found the tempta-tions of town so intolerable that he fled into the Egyptian

Afterward St. Anthony confessed that the temptations of a cell in the desert were worse than those of the city. It is to be hoped Ruth, in his solitude, does not have the same experience.

For Ruth, we fear, is no more St. Anthony than some of the rest of us.

DISTINGUISHED scientists say the flea lives two months.

Our dog, dealing with hard facts, not theory, will dispute this.

The elephant, the pike and the carp live 100 years. The turtle lives 125 years.

Man's prescribed life is seventy years. Recent statistics have placed it at thirty-three years, a little longlife of the eagle. a little longer than the BARRING accident, any man that so desires can live to be 100 years old.

The formula is simple. Sunlight, pure air, pure water, nourishing food, cleanliness, exercise. It is all provided by Nature.

But Nature is a strict mis-tress. Few of us are willing to accept her discipline. Per-haps few of us wish to live 100 years.

OHN J. M'GRAW, manager of the Giants, once showed the writer how dyspepsia could be cured.

He put us out on the baseball diamond, and batted grounders at us for half an hour. McGraw said the bending down to pick up the ball would soon take all the kinks out of our stomach. Perhaps it would. We quit after the first day. It was too much work. Taking a pill was much easier. "And there's a hundred million others like me," to quote the topical song.

T HE jackass knows more about taking care of its stomach than the average

When the jackass feels that its inards are out of kilter, it quits eating. It does not eat for several days.

If men with bad stömachs had the brains of a jackass they could probably attain the talk quite frankly on these ques-tions, but again emphatically denied that he had saki anything that might be construed to hint that a

EWIS CORNARO, a Venetian nobleman, wrote a book entitled "Sure and Certain Methods of attaining a Long and Healthy Life."
He wrote it in a period when now is, nearly 400 years ago. Cornaro said a man could live to be 100. His friends said he was a "nut."

Then Cornaro proved it by living that long. He died at Padua, April 26, 1566. Cor-naro did not look beyond Nature for his remedies.

D age is a disease. It can be combatted and deferred like any other disease.

One way of beating it is to THINK young. Men who live in the past always have heavy wrinkles. A man who THINKS young, who is young in his heart, is never old.

If he preserved the frame as he preserves the spirit of youth he would live a long, long time. Too long, perhaps.

THE Bible says Methuselah

It seems probable that in those days they reckoned time by the moon, as our In-dians did. Reduced to moons, or lunar months, Methuselah would have been eighty, one-twelfth of 969; Isaac, said to have lived 180 years, seventy-

LLEN LOWE, old sports A writer, says:
"Only the men who work hard maintain their position for an extended period. *Consider Douglas Fairbanks Shake hands with him, and tell me if the calloused palms and fingers do not tell of work. Run your fingers over his muscular body. look at his keen, bright eyes and his lean, spare jaws. Then you will see why he is the leading figure in the picture

"Think of other men who have

. I on Page 3. This Section.)

made a specialty of athletic ability in pictures that have

Can Wrestler Beat Fighter in Mixed Match? COLLEGE PARK Johnson, Noted Boxer, Favors the Matman

ONE PICTORIAL ANSWER TO THE BIG QUESTION

the reporters put out. Unfortunately, however, I did not know that they were there until after you had begun to speak. The letter from the Chairman of he Princeton Football Committee appended:

My dear Mr. Withington: The newspaper interpretation of the speech you made at the Princeton smoker last Friday night, featured in such sensational fashion in the press of Sunday morning, was as unwarranted as it was inaccurate.

Had it been correctly reported and the hasty conclusions of the reporters omitted, it would have been a valuable step toward clarifying some impressions that unfortunately may have existed among certain of our respective

CARRY'S MEN GIVE HENDLER MEN, LICKING

Then Both Teams and the Rooters Lick Up a Lot of Ice Cream.

at the Recreation Alley last night, the Carry Ice Cream Company came out on top in the special match with Hendler Cream ery Company, of Baltimore. A margin of fifty-two pins in the three games gave the home boys a state of the same state of the scores:

The scores:

Carry Ice Cream Company is the same state of the same state of the scores:

Carry Ice Cream Hendler.

Hall ... 91 95 97 Freeze. 98 95 106 96 97 85 98 17 Roble. 96 17 85 95 106 97 85 98 120 (Cover. 107 88 87 87 Roble. 96 17 85 95 106 97 85 98 120 (Cover. 107 88 87 87 Roble. 96 17 85 98 120 (Cover. 107 88 87 87 88 120 (Cover. 107 88

By ED CURLEY.

AN a fighter beat a wrestler?
This question has stirred a lot of comment in sporting ircles.

The fighters, as a rule, contend ey can defeat a wrestler in a alixed match without any trouble, chat sounds well until Floyd Johnson, a young man who is considered a contender for Jack Dempsey's ittle, tried it in a slight way. Johnson said after the trial that he believed a wrestler could overcome a gighter in jig time.

At first thought a fighter would say a well-delivered punch would knock out a wresteler. Fair enough.

The accompanying remarkable illustration shows Floyd Johnson, the loss of a titles on this interesting subject.

B EFORE one of the largest galleries in bowling history, at the Recreation Alley last showlers won in both cities, the losing team be given the choice. M. Hendler will play host to a large gathering next week at Baltimore.

÷

SEASON RATED AS A SUCCESS

Victories Over Johns Hopkins, C. U., and North Carolina State Redeem Early Defeats.

OLLEGE PARK, Md., Dec. 1. —While perhaps not so impressive as to games won and lost, Maryland's showing in the gridiron campaign was not disappointing to followers of the Black and Gold. Of nine games the Old Line warriors won three, tied one and lost five. However, it was not the number of vic-tories but the elevens over whom these victories were gained that, from the College Park viewpoint, redeems a season which at one time promised to be one of the most disastrous in the school's history.

When Maryland conquers its tra-

When Maryland conquers its tra-ditional foe, Johns Hopkins, rides roughshod over its old enemy, Cath-olic University, and vanquishes North Carolina State, another stur-dy rival, it has turned in a highly satisfying record as far as its sup-porters are concerned, no matter how many games may have been OFFER NO ALIBI.

As for their defeats, Coach Byrd and members of the eleven have alibi. However, Black and Gold adherents, while not desiring to detract from the glory of those before whom Maryland fell, believe that few teams in the South faced the disadvantage of hopping around each week to points many miles from home to tackle some of the most nowerful machines in the country.

next Friday evening for the remaining three games. Through the courtesy of the Carry Ice Cream Company all the bowlers at the Recreation were treated to an ice cream feast.

The winner of last night's battle had the choice of the cities, and E. H. Danials, president of the Carry Company, suggested as Carry towlers won in both cities, the loss ing team be given the choice. M. Hendler will play host to a large training tax week at Baltimore.

The sores:

Carry Ice Cream. Hendler.

The winner of last night's battle had the choice of the cities, and E. H. Danials, president of the Carry Icompany, suggested as Carry towlers won in both cities, the loss were completely outclassed, all the proposition of the carry loss of the proposition of the carry loss of the proposition of the carry loss of the proposition. So Coach Byrd or cream feast.

The winner of last night's battle had the choice of the cities, and E. H. Danials, president of the Carry Company, suggested as Carry towlers won in both cities, the loss in the proposition of the carry loss of the proposition. So Coach Byrd or cream feast.

The winner of last night's battle had the choice of the cities, and E. H. Danials, president of the Carry Icompany, suggested as Carry towlers will be act be such that the proposition of the cities, and took the field against will march to Cathedral avenue to Oliver street, to Maryland avenue to Oliver street, to Charles and north along Thirty-third street to the stadium.

The sorres:

Carry Ico Cream.

Hendler.

As a result while the Johnnies were completely outclassed, all north along Thirty-third street to the stadium.

The stadium.

The same starts promptly at 2 o'clock. Many former army and ordered out the campaign in the reward passes this season will be on both the stadium.

The stadium.

The stadium will be a most inspiring sight.

Totals 444 480 488 Totals. 459 461 44 Carrolina State.

Carry Ico Cream.

Hendler.

A Phaller St. St. 100 Cover. 197 58 88 510 for the campaign in the campaign in the campaign in the campaig

••

IMPRESSIVE RECORD SPEECH GARBLED SAYS WHITHINGTON FAVORS EASTONIANS IN BIG GAME TODAY

Jock Sutherland May Be Serving in Final Engagement for Maroon Eleven as Rumor Has It He Will Go to Pittsburgh Next Fall, Keady Handling Team.

By BRYAN MORSE.

ORM players are picking Lafayette College to defeat George town University in today's big football game at America. League Park, which will start at 2 p. m.

The Eastonians are rated a 3-to-2 favorite over the Hilltopper on account of the fact that they have been defeated but once in the least three years.

on account of the fact that they have been defeated but once in past three years. Lafayette carries the edge because of its mi impressive record on the season.

With all due respect to the late Penn State-Navy engageme today's contest from a football standpoint is a considerably strong offering. The teams are better football teams in every department while this game lacks, perhaps, the glamor of the November setto, with the parade of Penn State nondescripts and the order marching blue-coated midshipmen, it is a gathering of many of smartest, most aggressive and powerful football players in the courtry today.

Probable Line-Up For Big Game Here Today

Lafayette. Geo. Univ. Berry . . . L. E. . Florence Ford . . . . L. T . Comstock Schwab . . . L. G. Thompson Conti ....C.... Wirtu Mittinger ...R. G. Sheehan Deibel ... R. T. Sullivan O'Connell ... R. E.....King O'Connell R. E. King Brennan Q. B. Du Four Brunner L. H. Flavin Gazelia R. H. Lowe Chick F. B. Malley

SERVICE GAME

Army and Marines Play in

DALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 1.-Baltimore's big day is at RECORD IMPRESSES. representing the United States is most impressive. recuperate, the College Parkers showed little better the next week against the stalwart Virginia Tech combination, losing 21, to 0.

Next week the sorely spent Mary who will include the highest Mar. locked Boston College 12 to 0. But wait and see. Several topnotch fighters disagree with this dops. You will discover their reasons from now on in the Sporting American. This page will present a series of articles on this interesting subject.

Maryland then grew anxious.
Hopkins was to be met in two weeks and no matter at what cost who will include the highest Marune Corps and Army officials.

The Eastonians are not particular better to 6. West Beaten by Washington and The Leastonians are not privately proud of the Lehigh enter in Corps and Army

By DeBECK

come forward with more or le caustic remarks anent the George town schedule. Much unwarrant criticism has been directed at Hi top authorities for the failure bring first class elevens to bring first class elevens to the city.

Here in a nutshell are the factor on one of the most formidals elevens of the past three years.

They are guaranteeing the larger sum of money ever offered a foo hall eleven to visit Washington.

They have selected in Crowell, a Swarthmore; Murphy, of Brown, and McCarthy, a Germantown, four of the best off cials the country has to offer.

Brennan Q. B. Du Four Brunner L. H. Flavin Gazelia R. H. Lowe Chick F. B. Malley Place—American League Park.

Time—2 o'clock.
Referee—Crowell, Swarthmore.
Umpire—Fultz, Brown.
Field judge — Murphy, Brawn.
Linesman — McCarthy, Germantown.

SERVICE GAME

AT BALTIMORE

AT BALTIMORE

IS FEATURED

Army and Marines Play in Venable Stadium in Dedicating Structure Today.

DALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 1.—

Broomers in a bour years since George town has taken on a team of the caliber of this year's Lafayet calleven in a home game. This with all due respect to Folwell's Washington and Jefferson eleven of several years back and the famous Washington and Jefferson eleven of several years back and the famous Washington and Jefferson eleven of several years back and the famous Washington football font of the lafayet eleven. Rumor has it that Sutheland will supplant Warner at Pitts burgh, his alma mater and the place where he played under Warner.

Next year, according to the buse bee. Tom Keady, former Lehning and the Green Mountain footbal followers as well, would give hieve teeth to get a crack at Lehigh ins his swan song today, for all anybody knows.

ing his swan song today, for all anybody knows.

hand. Football teams rep- Lafayette's record for the year esenting the United States is most impressive. The Eastonian have defeated Richmond 34 to 1

Public schools of the northeast section of the city are planning the formation of a basketball league, and it is desired that other sections of the National Capital organize circuits in order that at the conclusion of each sectional series, inter-sectional contests can be held to determine the public school championship of the District. Those schools of the northeast which have signified their intention of joining the league are the Maury, Hilton, Pasbody, Blake, Carberry and one or two others. At several of these schools teams have already been formed abilipractice indulged in.

Yosemites Are Grateful To Navajo A. C. Players Through the Herald, the

THOSE RICH BIRDS REALLY WANT TO BUY SPARK PLUG FOR $10,000 - AS MUCH AS I HATE TO PART WITH MY LITTLE GUESS I GOTTA OFFER STILL HOLDS

BARNEY GOOGLE

and the many the second